

Orange Street, Cape Town 1870

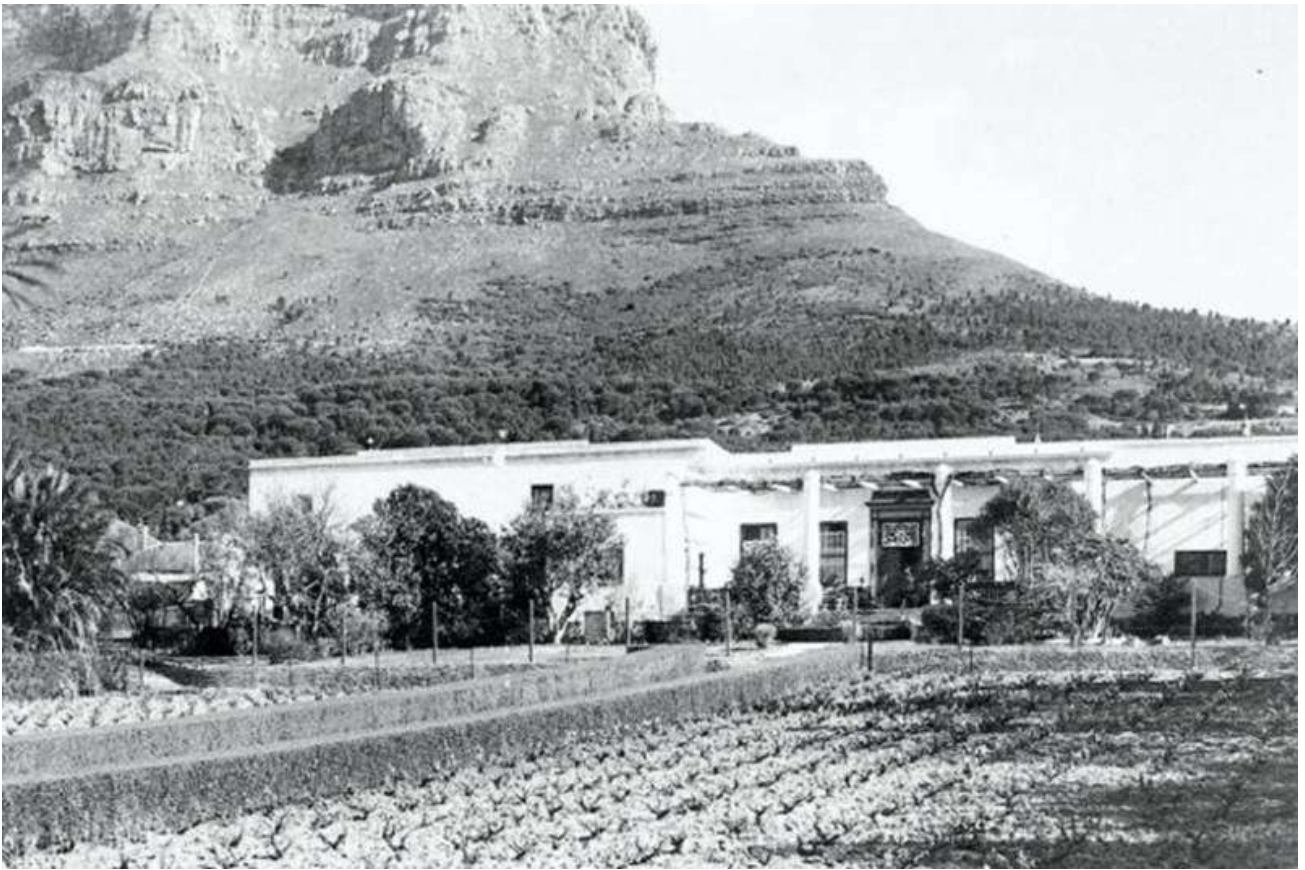

Sea Point 1890

The beach that used to be in Woodstock .
This photo was taken in 1899.

The Naval base in Simon's Town 1900

"Welgemeend" is one of the oldest surviving houses in Cape Town and was built in Gardens in 1700.

This photo was taken in 1901.

The Lime kilns in Mowbray in 1910, with Table Mountain in the background.

The Old Pier was completed in 1910 and became a popular spot for Capetonians. This picture was taken in 1911.

The USS Huntington arrives to a very desolate foreshore in 1948.

The foreshore was built in 1945, but due to the economic climate after the war, it took a while to be properly utilized.

The view from Blouberg in 1950.

Kloof Road en-route to Glen Beach in 1953.

The First Cape Argus Cycle Tour took place in 1978, with 525 people taking part. The Crowd grew to 35,000 in 2012.